Info

Please note that Hearth Black is the only finish rated for 1200 degrees. It is highly recommended for Wood fire places. An option is to specify Hearth Black on the back of the fire screen and any other finish on the front of the fire screen. There is no additional charge if selecting from the (A) finish group.

Mesh screen will come in a complementary solid color. Ironware products are hand forged, and as a result, dimensions may vary.

Customization available.
